Conference for Three Provinces To be Called to Secure Unity Of Civic Wages and Conditions

City Council Adopts Scheme of Commissioner Yorath That Western Cities Should Take Joint Action—Million Dollar By-Law Passed—Authorizes Debentures to Cover Sinking Fund Payments

From the point of view of the large number of civic employees in all the western cities, and also the taxpayer in general, a very important subject was brought to the notice of the city council on Monday night, Commissioner Yorath.

The particular matter was his proposal that steps should be taken to try and secure uniformity of wages and working conditions in the public utility and other departments of civic administration in all the cities in the three prairie provinces.

That the civic employee is more or less a citizen of the province from the fact that it is the government which pays his wages can also the elimination of competition which would result if the tax-payer is interested in decreasing the demands of the public service.

Council approved of the suggestion, but it was decided that it would not be mentioned at the conference.

Selection of Committee

Under the new procedure of council two committees had to be selected from the nomination committee.

The nomination committee consists of three members of council to constitute the by-laws and legislation committee.

Mr. J. A. McArthur, Sheppard, East, and that the finance committee consist of three members of council.

Mr. A. MacCoppin, Richard, McLeman, and Mr. A. Thompson.

The report was adopted. The committee will elect their own chairman, and the members of the committee selected are the two that will be in operation.

MILLION DOLLAR BY-LAW

Council duly passed the third reading of the by-law authorizing the issuance of debentures for a million dollars on the security of the sinking fund trust for the purpose of meeting the city payments due to the Dominion government.

Land Department

At that time the negotiations in connection with the sale and exchange of land by the city that need revision, and the nomination committee, committee for consideration, and after-vote, were referred to the by-laws committee through the by-laws committee.

Market Endorsement

Planned by the commissioners for extension to the market end of the street, and the front of the present building could be enlarged and conducted with a larger office space cost $15,000, and it was suggested that the expense of the proposed extension be financed out of market revenue.

The extension was approved, and the nomination committee expressed their view that buildings of an architectural nature should be placed on the market.

It was held that eventually the place of business would be taken up in a square or garden.

No Grade For Asylum

Major Dugan informed council that the grade of the new mayor of Asylum, Quebec, expressing confidence at the disaster which had been suffered by the inmates.

In the reply, that financial assistance should be given to the inmates appreciated by the sufferers from the fire.

In regard to this matter of rendering financial aid, the attitude taken should be carried out by the Dominion government, that it would have been greatly appreciated if they could have suffered as a result of the fire.

Aid. Sheppard moved that council resolve to the effect that all contributions be sent to the victims by the Dominion government.

The motion was seconded by MacCoppin and carried.

The Metropole Lease

A copy of the lease for the property rented by Mr. MacCoppin on the corner of 102nd Street and 104th Avenue was read.

As there are one or two debatable points, particularly in respect to the conditions under which council has agreed to the lease, the lease was referred to the by-laws committee for report.

Aid. Sheppard drew attention to the fact that all contributions be sent to the victims by the Dominion government.

The motion was seconded by MacCoppin and carried.

The Daily Poem

LITTLE GAY HEART OF ME.

Little gay heart of me, you who went

Blithe little songs to me,

All the day long;

Little gay heart of me, you who kept

Bringing

Content, and joy to me,

Where to me?

What have you done to you cut off their blinds?

Calling to me,

Was there not one who could listen in

Catch your note of you,

Tell it again?

Hands that lie now, spirit that wears

For ever shrouded wrought

Service for men;

Of the darkness,

Little gay heart of me,

Heart once again!

ESKIMOS ABUSE QUAKERS IN OPENING GAME, WINNING BY SCORE OF FOURTEEN TO NIL

Jones Held Visitors to Three Solitary Blows While the Home Club Battled Hartshard's Offerings for Fifteen Blows, Including Two Home Runs Apperson and Hauger Got Circuit Clouds with Men on the Paths

Testerday was a Quaker day at Eskimo Park. John Hummel's squad of athletes were completely out of luck for wins in the first two meetings of the opening series. Doc Hartshard's offerings to the tune of 14 runs and 15 hits pitched Jones but the Eskimos' three runs were all home runs which were productive of no runs.

It must be recorded that Saskatchewan crippled Jones. Kerran was out of the game because he had been too much run over from injuries received in the last series in Edmonton, and the Eskimos' batsmen were not up to par. Otherwise the team was intact.

On the other hand, the Eskimos' hitting of the Eskimos and some annoyings fielding includes three double plays by the Eskimos and a foul ball in all tall about the game.

The Scoring

Edmonton's first two runs came in the third. Nelson allowed the third strike, which Gleason hit down the first base line for two bases. Jones drove in the first run and Gleason big into the air off the young man's bat. Thus, the Eskimos had scored. Jones was at first, but Gleason scored. Then Stuart hit for two more to score two more. Jones had been sent out to Forsyth and Mee was thrown at first.

In the fifth, Jones singled after two were out and Stuart hit far into the gap. Jones had been sent out to hold the third in and scored the second run. In the sixth two were
